

P-EBT Robocall and Text Scripts

Schools can use the scripts below to send out robocalls and texts to eligible families informing them of P-EBT.

Send June 3:

The Pandemic Electronic Benefit Transfer, or P-EBT, application is open. You should have received a school email or letter with more information on how to apply for these food benefits. P-EBT is for children who received SNAP food benefits for March 2020 and for children who are certified for free or reduced-price school meals during the 2019-20 Texas school year. You could receive up to $285 per child on a P-EBT card to purchase food at stores. If you have not received P-EBT information from your school, please contact <insert HHS hotline>. Visit hhs.texas.gov/PEBT for more information.

Send June 16:

There are two weeks left to apply for P-EBT food benefits. You should have received a school email or letter with a link to the application. P-EBT is for children who received SNAP March 2020 and children who are certified for free or reduced-price school meals during the 2019-20 Texas school year. If you have not received information from your school, please contact <insert HHS hotline>. Visit hhs.texas.gov/PEBT for more information.

Send June 23:

There is one week left to apply for P-EBT food benefits. You should have received a school email or letter with a link to the application. P-EBT is for children who received SNAP March 2020 and children who are certified for free or reduced-price school meals during the 2019-20 Texas school year. If you have not received information from your school, please contact <insert HHS hotline>. Visit hhs.texas.gov/PEBT for more information.